Winter in Salzburg and cross-country skiing in Faistenau

Once winter has really arrived with snow and cold, you can go hiking wonderfully on Salzburg's city mountains. The view of the baroque ensemble of the old episcopal city, where influences of Italian and German culture combine to form an enchanting arrangement, is very impressive from above.

Only 20 kilometres from Salzburg lies the tranquil holiday resort of Faistenau in a quiet side valley and surrounded by the Osterhorn Group. Because of its fog-free, sunny and snow-sure location, it is considered an insider tip among winter sports enthusiasts. Whether pleasure-oriented beginner or professional skater, the wide network of trails in Faistenau and in the neighboring village of Hintersee consists of well-groomed trails without major gradients and allows wonderful insights into the snow-covered winter landscape.
